

Type 2 transient surge protection Three-phase 40KA

Product description:

This protection device works in conjunction with the residual current circuit breaker to disconnect the charger from the line when a permanent overvoltage exceeding 280 V is detected.

Product features:

